Taking a Closer Look at 2012

• The current field is comprised of 23 automatic qualifiers based upon their conference / independent / unaffiliated group tournaments, eight at-large selections, which were determined using the final Top 25 rating released May 8 and the host berth, Mobile.

• Top-ranked Concordia (Calif.), who set an all-time NAIA record with its 44-game regular-season win streak earlier this year, has been the No. 1 team in the Coaches' Poll for the final six weeks this year. The Eagles are competing in their fourth overall National Championship and are 6-7 (.462) in postseason action.

• Defending national champion Oregon Tech headlines the list of qualifiers. Champions out of the Cascade Collegiate Conference Tournament, the Hustlin' Owls went 7-1 overall during the 2011 National Championship to take home their first hardware. This trip is the third overall for Oregon Tech and the club is trying to become the third team in NAIA history to repeat (Oklahoma City and Emporia State (Kan.)).

• Oklahoma City is making its NAIA record 21st-straight trip to Gulf Shores. The Stars own the most national championships (8) and carry an all-time best 103-38 postseason mark to the Yellowhammer State. Oklahoma City is trying to capture its first title since 2007.

• There are six rookies in the 2012 championship field: Auburn Montgomery (Ala.), Bethany (Kan.), Indiana Wesleyan, Southern Nazarene (Okla.), Talladega (Ala.) and Williams Baptist (Ark.). Last season, there were seven newcomers to the event. Besides this list, Indiana Southeast and Reinhardt (Ga.) are searching for their first championship victory.

• There are 13 repeat qualifiers from last season. Conversely, of the teams that have appeared at least one previous time, Central Methodist (Mo.) is breaking the longest drought. The Eagles last made the trip in 1981 in their only other previous action. Texas Wesleyan, out of the Red River Athletic Conference, is also dusting off the cobwebs. The Rams last played in the 1984 event.

• Overall, there are 12 programs making at least their fifth National Championship. Of those teams, only Oklahoma City and Mobile are playing in their 10th-or-more event.

• Eighteen teams have won at least one previous National Championship, with four of those programs holding multiple titles. Five teams in this year's field display at least one trophy on their campus: Lubbock Christian (Texas), Mobile, Oklahoma City, Oregon Tech and Thomas (Ga.).

• The Southern States Athletic Conference (SSAC), which has repeatedly landed six teams in the Coaches' Top 25 poll, qualified the most of any conference / independent / unaffiliated group with six. Representing the SSAC is Auburn Montgomery, Brenau, Lee (Tenn.), Mobile, Shorter (Ga.) and William Carey (Miss.). The Sooner Athletic Conference sends four teams to Gulf Shores: Lubbock Christian, Oklahoma City, St. Gregory's (Okla.) and Southern Nazarene.

• For the second time, some games in the double-elimination bracket will be video-streamed live via NeuLion. Game 9 on May 21 will be the first of as many as seven games that will be available. Games 9 – 15, which may include the "if necessary" game, will be streamed for a subscription price of either $9.95 per day, or an event fee of $29.95. Go to www.NAIA.org for more information.

Celebrating 32 Years of NAIA Softball

• In 32 years, the NAIA Softball National Championship has traveled to 12 different cities in eight different states. The 2012 event is hosted for the second-straight time by Gulf Shores, Ala. The Yellowhammer state has welcomed the NAIA Softball National Championship since 2000, with Decatur serving as the venue from 2000-10.

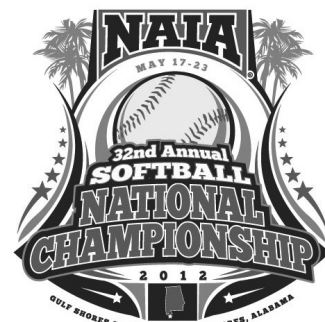

• There have been 186 schools that have qualified for the National Championship since the inaugural event in 1981. Six newcomers to the 2012 event are on that list.

• The National Championship game been forced into extra innings on four occasions. It took 10 innings to decide the 1988 national champ, with Pacific Lutheran (Wash.) defeating Minnesota-Duluth 2-0. The last extra-inning title game was in 2002, when Oklahoma City defeated Point Loma Nazarene (Calif.) 2-1 in eight innings.

• Eight title games have been won via shutout, let by Oklahoma City's 12-0 blanking of Athens State (Ala.) in 1997. That mark is also the largest margin of victory. The last championship game shutout was last year when Oregon Tech held off California Baptist, 1-0

• The last four title bouts have been one-run games. The four years previous to 2008, the victor won by an average of four runs.

• Azusa Pacific (Calif.) and St. Gregory's (Okla.) are the only teams in this year's field to compete in the title game, but have come up short. The Cougars made it once to the big game, but lost in 2000 and St. Gregory's was on the losing end in 2009.
